DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with David Bruhn (Reg#36,762) on 11/13/2007.

IN THE CLAIMS

Please amend the claims as following:

12. The cannula cover as set forth in claim 24 18, wherein the cover can only be retracted when a force acts on the cover from the front.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 12-18 are allowed over the prior art of record as amended in the reply filed 10/30/2007 and the Examiner's amendment above.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The claims in this application have been allowed because the prior art of record fails to disclose either singly or in combination the claimed device of a cannula cover for an injector with an axial retracting cap prior to injection to expose a cannula wherein the mechanism of the cover includes a flap and closure coupled to an interior member which moves the closure in a radial movement away from the center of a cannula passage, the flap rotates to move radially away from the center via a slaving means which comprises two parallel running stays that grip the covering flap to promote rotational movement.

The closest prior art of record is Nathan (5,374,255) and Castillo et al. (5,336,199) however these references do not disclose the device as claimed by Applicant or described above.

Regarding claim 18, the closest prior art of record fails to teach among all the limitations the cannula cover with interior portion, flap and slaving means for unlatching the flap and moving it radially from the center of the cannula to open the cannula passage.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
